

RENDEZVOUS WITH MADNESS FESTIVAL

10-20 OCTOBER 2019

HOT DOCS TED ROGERS CINEMA (OPENING NIGHT VENUE)
506 BLOOR STREET WEST (CLOSEST INTERSECTION IS BATHURST AND BLOOR)
This venue is wheelchair accessible

The Hot Docs Ted Rogers Cinema is located at 506 Bloor Street West. The building is on the north side of Bloor Street, just east of Bathurst. The front doors are 36" wide doors have a power-automated door opener.

Once inside the main doors, the box office will be on the left side of the hallway leading to the theatre. There is a concessions stand on the left before the theatre entrance, and doors on either side of the theatre. There is a balcony level for seating that can be accessed by stairs on either side of the lobby. There is one accessible washroom on the main floor, and more washrooms on the mezzanine level.

The held space will be located near the concessions stand and can be recognized by signage, a table and chairs, and the presence of the active listener, who will be wearing a staff badge.

The main floor has an accessible washroom with two grab bars and space for a wheelchair surrounding the toilet. The doorway measures 36" wide and includes a lever handle as well as a lowered hook behind the door to hang items.

The main floor of the auditorium has four designated wheelchair locations within the auditorium and is equipped with two transfer seats available for usage by patrons wishing to move from wheelchairs or other assistance devices.
